

Prayer letter for teaching peacemaking in Delhi, India, February 1-5, & Mali, W. Africa, March 28 – April 1

Dear friends and family,

We are very excited about returning to India and our first trip to Mali to continue our teaching of how to manage conflict among missionary leaders and those they serve. Yes, even missionaries have conflict, and especially when they are on multi-cultural teams working under very stressful situations and conditions. Several of the people who were at our prior teaching in both Delhi and Mali will be attending the seminars. It is our desire and prayer that these biblical peacemaking concepts will invade their hearts and spirits so they may live in peace and unity as evidence of Christ's love as they work together to spread the gospel. We are also praying that these leaders will gain a deep understanding of how to manage conflict in a way that glorifies God, and that they will be able to mediate disputes, teach others, and carry on the work we have begun. Will you please join us in this prayer?

We also ask for your prayers for:

- Travel safety, good health, stamina, and patience with each other
- That God may open the door for our message. That the people God wants to be at the seminar will be able to attend, and that they will have ears and hearts open to the teaching.
- Sensitiveness to the different cultures we will be working with
- Wise use of God's Word as we teach
- Wisdom and guidance from the Holy Spirit as we deal with conflict situations outside of our teaching responsibilities.

We thank you for your prayers and ask that you include our ministry partner, Jon, as you pray for us. He is a very integral part of our team and we are so grateful that God brought him into our lives just at the time we needed him! We believe God is going to do a great work as a result of this amazing teaching that we are so blessed to bring to God's people. Our prayer for you is, "May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit" Romans 15:13

God's grace and peace to you all,

Cathie and Jerry
